

TOG Pre-Rhetoric Literature assignments due at Co-Op 10 on Jan. 26

1. As you read Dangerous Journey, on a separate piece of paper write out the advice that each person gives to Christian. Decide if this advice is contrary to or favorable to the Word of God.

*Find scripture to support your opinion and write out your answer and the scripture, not just the scripture reference. Be prepared to share your scripture and discuss your answers in class. Include the advice given by the following people:

Evangelist

Obstinate & Pliable

Mr. Worldly-Wiseman

Simple, Sloth, and Presumption

Goodwill

2. Describe the significant events that happened in each of the places listed below. Are there times in your life that have seemed very similar? If so, describe them briefly — you will not be forced to share your personal stories in class unless you volunteer.

The Slough of Despond

The Interpreter's House

The Hill of Difficulty

The Fight with Apollyon

3. What happened in each place below? How are these places metaphors for the Christian life? If you could give Christian advice in each place, what would it be? On a separate sheet of paper answer all three of these questions (Happenings/Metaphor/Advice) for each of the places below. Be sure to write your answers in complete sentences.

The Valley of the Shadow of Death

Vanity Fair

Doubting Castle

The Dark River

*It is perfectly acceptable to use an online concordance to expedite the process of searching scripture. Ask your parents if they have a preferred online concordance. My personal favorite is www.blueletterbible.org.
