

Humanities Homework
Rhetoric and PreRhetoric
Due: Co-op #10

To study art and music, the best way is to look and listen – not necessarily read. So, for the rest of the semester, we will primarily be watching videos, looking at pictures, and listening to music/composers biographies.

Art – Northern Renaissance – Albrecht Durer

This documentary shares not only about Durer, but the changing role of the artist and art in society. There is plenty of history and geography that will enhance everything else you have already learned about this era.

Music – Baroque

The Renaissance laid a foundation for an explosion in musical invention and imagination – the Baroque Era (we will discuss Renaissance music briefly in class). This video is a great overview of Baroque music. The intro to this video has an unfortunate clip of Lady Gaga. The rest is delightful☺
