1. What obstacles stood in the way of Gladys becoming a missionary in China? Did they discourage her?
2. How was Gladys received by the local villagers when she finally met up with Mrs. Lawson?
3. After Mrs. Lawson's death, how did God provide steady income for her? How was this provision beyond what Gladys had ever dreamed?
4. How did Gladys use her gift of storytelling in China?
5. What effect did Gladys' involvement at the prison riot have on how she was perceived in the local community?
6. When Gladys realized she was going to have to guide nearly 100 children out of Yangcheng, it seemed to be an impossible feat, yet God provided in every situation. What Bible verses do you think might have helped encourage her during this time to trust that the Lord would provide? Write out at least two verses and include both the verses and where they're found (book/chapter/verse).
