

Dialectic Literature Assignment for Co-op #9

Read Jim Elliot: One Great Purpose and answer the following questions.

1. What lessons did Jim and Pete learn when they tried to save the Indian child who was dying of pneumonia?
2. What changed Jim's thoughts about marriage?
3. What good did Jim and the other missionaries see come out of the flood?
4. How was holding a Bible conference in the jungle different from holding one in the US?
5. Why was Jim attracted to mission work among the Auca Indians?
6. What was the importance of dropping gifts to the Aucas?
7. In what ways did God use what seemed to be a horrible tragedy to further his gospel?
8. What was your overall impression of Jim Elliot and his story? Were you challenged or inspired? If so, how?