Movies

(watch out for a sexual scenes from James Bond & The Graduate, language in Midnight Cowboy and Planet of the Apes- both toward the end).

Also, their top pick is Psycho - which they describe as a mix of sexual & horror. They choose it because of its influence on future films and the ushering in of this type of storyline. I would advise you to preview this list, and then show clips to your family based on how you wish to discuss the way film topics are evolving. I find it very interesting how the list has changed even in one decade. As we talk about the 1950s being the greenhouse of ideas and decisions that eventually produce the fruit of the 1960s and 1970s, it is interesting to see how the film topics change and how people choose to be entertained.

You can also Youtube Top 10 Sci-Fi, Comedy, Horror, Defining Actors ( I have not screened these).
