Thinking Questions:

1. As you read through the details of everyday life and developments, ponder, in general terms, what were some large scale changes that occurred in everyday British life during the Victorian Era? Jot down a couple of examples as they occur to you.
2. What kinds of problems did these changes pose for British people in the 1830's and 1840's?
3. Andrew Jackson's character and tenure of office dramatically altered the American political landscape in numerous ways. Prepare to discuss ways that he effected these changes.
4. Many secular history books esteem Jackson as a great president. Why would they come to this conclusion?
